

SEASIDE JEWISH COMMUNITY HIGH HOLY DAY & SUKKOT FESTIVAL SERVICES 5780/2019

Location and Everyone Welcome

The majority of Seaside's High Holy Day services take place at Epworth United Methodist Church, 19285 Holland Glade Road, Rehoboth Beach, DE. Services are open to all who want to participate with the Seaside Jewish Community. Neither tickets nor advance reservations for services are required.

Prayer Book (Machzor) and Service Leaders

Seaside is an independent, unaffiliated community of approx. 350 families, over 500 adults and children. Services are egalitarian. We use and provide the Hillel Machzor, On Wings of Awe, which has gender neutral language for God and transliteration of Hebrew. Services will be led by Religious Leader, Reb Lisa Levine, and Rabbi Simcha Daniel Burstyn, returning for his 10th year from Kibbutz Lotan in Israel.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Shofar Blowers

The cacophony of sounds generated when many shofarot are sounded at the same time during the Shofar service on Rosh Hashana morning is awe-inspiring. We invite anyone who knows how to sound the tekiyah-shevarim-teruah calls to bring their Shofar with them, and join our Shofar choir during the Rosh Hashana morning service and at the end of Neila on Yom Kippur day.

Set Up/Break Down (at Epworth)

Andy and Susan Aaronson are managing the logistics. Please let them know in advance when you will be able to help by emailing susanaaron@aol.com, or calling 302-278-7272. It is helpful if Andy and Susan know they can count on you at a specific time. Ten to 12 volunteers are needed during each shift:

- Rosh Hashanah set up: Sun Sep 29, 1-3 pm
- Rosh Hashanah breakdown: Mon Sep 30, immediately after the service ends
- Yom Kippur set up: Tue Oct 8, 9-11 am
- Break-the-Fast set up: Wed Oct 9, 4 pm
- Yom Kippur breakdown: Wed Oct 9, immediately after the service ends
- Break-the-Fast clean up: Wed Oct 9, 8 pm

Sukkah Building and Breakdown (at Seaside)

- Building: Sun Oct 6 at 9 am
- Breakdown: Sun Oct 27 at 9 am
