Chesed/Community Service

Committee to Become Two

The Chesed/Community Service Committee has come a long way since Seaside's inception, from a handful of people doing good deeds to many congregants impacting the community in a myriad of ways. Over the years, energetic members of this committee have held blood drives, done road cleanups, made meals for ailing congregants, participated in the Epworth soup kitchen, collected items for the needy, and worked with other faiths in the Rehoboth area to better our community.

With so many opportunities to perform Tikkun Olam and volunteers who wish to give their time, the committee has decided to form two distinct committees: Chesed and Community Service. The Seaside Board approved this separation at its January meeting. The Chesed Committee's activities are directed at performing acts of loving kindness for congregants, including Helping Hands (including the meal train), bereavement support, gift bags for various Jewish holidays, and pastoral counseling.

The Community Service Committee's activities impact the community at large, including our many efforts to feed the hungry (e.g. Soup Kitchen, ISOP and food rescue), collection drives, monetary donations to local non-profits, and interfaith activities. This committee is also interested in developing social justice/advocacy programs.

To make it convenient for congregants wishing to participate on both committees, they will continue to meet on the third Friday of every month: Chesed from 10 to 10:30 a.m. and

Community Service from 10:45 to 11:45 a.m.

Many hands make light work! If you are interested in joining either or both committees, contact Anita Smulyan, 302-703-2900; Phyllis Bloom, 302-945-5522; or Emily Eider, 610-781-4175.

Jewish Film Festival Encores in March

The fourth annual Rehoboth Beach Jewish Film Festival will be held at the Cinema Arts Theater in Lewes from Wednesday, March 13, through Sunday, March 17. The festival includes 11 screenings, and several of the films will include speakers. SJC does not sponsor films held on Shabbat.

This year, our festival will host the regional premiere of "The Bird Catcher." Before the screening on Saturday evening, a reception will be held to meet special guests from the film. Members of the community have the unique opportunity to host two of these guests at their home overnight. For more information, contact Marshall Schord at the Rehoboth Beach Film Society at 302-645-9095.

For more information or to purchase tickets, visit the Rehoboth Beach Film Society at 107 Truitt Avenue, Rehoboth Beach, call 302-645-9095, or go to its website at www.rehobothfilm.com.

Thanks to members of the community who have stepped forward to host all the films. We are especially excited about this year's events, and we welcome everyone to come and fill the house once more!

Co-President's Message

- Alyssa Simon

It is my honor to begin my second term as Co-President of SJC. I look forward to continuing the journey with Co-President Buddy Feldman by my side.

January was a very busy month at Seaside. Friday, Jan. 4, we held our Board of Directors installation and official welcome for Reb Lisa. Lovely words were shared by our special guest, Rabbi Marc Disik. Later that weekend, the social committee arranged our annual opening dinner. Big Fish Grill was filled with over 80 longtime and new members.

January is also the month for everyone to pay their membership dues. Thanks to all who have already paid. For those who haven't yet paid, invoices were mailed out late January/early February. It would be extremely helpful if you could pay as soon as possible so that we can continue to count you as a member.

Our continued growth is an important theme that drives us. As I'm writing this, our congregation has already gained nine new members since the new year.

Great things are coming to SJC. Please check the newsletter or our website calendar for all events at SJC. I am sure you will find something of interest, whether it is worship services, adult education classes, or social activities.

Yes, You Can!

Have you ever wanted to attend an SJC event but thought you couldn't afford it? SJC policy is to work with you if you have a financial hardship. Please contact the treasurer to confidentially discuss your situation.

Message from Reb Lisa

My first mission to Cuba was in 2005, and the unforgettable Jewish Community there has connected with me forever. I've returned five more times, and each was more special than the time before.

Seaside Jewish Community will embark on our own Cuba adventure on Jan. 24, 2020. Our initial meetings have taken place, and our itinerary is coming together beautifully. It will feature a great mix of Jewish heritage, cultural experiences, social education, music, and food! Aida Wasserstein, who will join us on the mission, will provide her firsthand experience as a native Cuban as well as her incredible story and contributions to the Holocaust Memorials on the island.

What is most special is that we will be taking down much needed funds and medicines to support and sustain the six Jewish communities we will visit in Cuba. If you wish to contribute, please be in touch with me, and if you wish to register or want more information about the trip, please email me: reblisa@yahoo.com.

Viva Cuba!

Yoga Shalom at Seaside with Reb Lisa

Open your heart, quiet your mind & restore your spirit! Yoga Shalom is for everyone, whether you are sitting in a chair or have advanced Yoga experience.

Bring a mat or towel, and dress comfortably!

All levels are welcome.

Classes are Mondays, 9:30 a.m. on:

February 4 and March 4

You can pay by mailing a check or paying online. Instructions for both methods are included in the invoice.

SJC offers a wide variety of educational, worship, and social activities to meet our members' needs. We, in turn, depend on your membership dues to operate.

We welcome all who want to join, regardless of ability to pay. If you cannot pay dues in full, please use the invoice to pay what you can. No explanation is needed. If an offset or payment plan is needed, or if you have any questions, please contact Howie Hochman, SJC Treasurer at hhochm@gmail.com.

Wednesday Mornings at Seaside

Every Wednesday, 9:00 to 10:30 a.m., you'll find the SJC doors open for those interested in a contemplative, spiritual, peace-filled start to their day. Meditation, chant, and prayer are included. Everyone, including folks wanting to learn the practice of meditation, is welcome.

Brain Longevity: Exciting New Series

Would you like to improve your overall life quality and well-being? A new Adult Education program will begin on March 7 at SJC. Leslie Slan, SJC member and Alzheimer's Research and Prevention Foundation's (ARPF) certified Brain Longevity Specialist, and Cathy Brown, a certified yoga instructor and therapist, will present a five-part series on "The Four Pillars of Brain Longevity and Alzheimer's Prevention." The classes will be held on Thursday mornings: March 7, 14, and 21 and April 4 and 11 from 9:30 to 11 a.m.

ARPF is dedicated to the prevention of Alzheimer's by funding integrative medicine research and providing educational outreach and memory screenings. They have published 30 research papers on lifestyle that can improve brain health even as we age.

The classes will focus on nutrition and supplements, stress management, physical and mental exercise, and spirituality. The series is a research-based program on yoga and integrative therapies for brain health and healthy aging. It will include practical everyday strategies, restorative and chair yoga, breath, and meditation as ways to keep your mind healthy. Please contact Leslie Slan at lesslan@comcast.net or 301-908-7768 if you are planning to attend.

Jewish History Program

The first session of our Adult Education program - Jewish Intellectual History: 16th to 20th Century - was a resounding success. The second session is scheduled on Wednesday, Feb. 13 at 4 p.m., at SJC. It will focus on the Venetian ghetto, which obligated all Jews to occupy a single area of the city during the 16th century. There were five synagogues in the ghetto, each representing a different branch of Judaism. Proximity to each other forced them to work with one another and, according to University of Pennsylvania Professor Daniel Ruderman, served to encourage dialogue with non-Jewish citizens in Venice. Peter Zoll will facilitate an active discussion following Professor Ruderman's lecture.

A Taste of Mussar Feb. 14

Our Mussar course continues at SJC on Feb. 14 at 7:30 p.m. Mussar is a Jewish spiritual practice for elevating our inner lives as we explore and nurture our personal soul traits. We meet on the second Thursday of each month. Our discussion guide is Everyday Holiness: The Jewish Spiritual Path of Mussar by Alan Morinis. In February, we'll discuss the trait of Simplicity (Chapter 14) and then tie it to the seven traits we've previously studied: Humility, Patience, Gratitude, Compassion, Order, Equanimity and Honor. Call our moderator, George Beckerman, at 202-903-5060 if you are interested in exploring the study of Mussar.

Alfred Gross Memorial

Lecture: Save the Date

The 12th annual Alfred Gross Memorial Lecture event will take place Saturday, April 13, at SJC and will include lunch and a discussion. Retired CNN correspondent Ralph Begleiter, the keynote speaker, will talk about "The Media and Politics in the Middle East." Alfred Gross, an early member of Seaside, was committed to the importance of the practice of Jewish ritual and education. His widow, Suzanne Gross, sponsors the meal each year. Mark your calendars. More information to come.

Purim Party: Save the Date

This year our Purim Party will take place on Sunday, March 17. The SJC teens have invited teens from Epworth and the Islamic Society of Central Delaware to join us for the celebration. More to follow in next month's newsletter.

Haftorah Session Feb. 25

The Haftorah class will meet at SJC on Monday, Feb 25, at 3 p.m. The session will focus on Va-y'hi 1 Kings 2:1-12. Reminiscent of The Godfather, the dying King David advises his heir, Solomon, how to take care of the family business. Is it appropriate to inject this sordid tale into a Shabbat service? What can we learn from it? What does it have to do with the Parashah, which is the conclusion of B'reishit? Come to this one: it's an offer you can't refuse!

Helping Hands

SJC offers support to members who are ill, grieving, homebound, or just need a helping hand. Available support includes sending cards, visiting people at home, preparing and delivering meals, picking up groceries and prescriptions, small repairs around the house, and running errands. New Helping Hand team members are welcome. Contact Anita Smulyan at 302-703-2900. If you can provide a meal, call Cynthia Mervis at 302-212-2692.

Oy Vey, 5K!

SJC is excited about our 7th Oy Vey 5K, 1 mile walk, and kids race. The event will be on Sunday, April 28, at 9 a.m., with race day registration beginning at 8 a.m. We are again partnering with Seashore Striders to host a fantastic day of fun and fitness. We hope you will consider running, walking, volunteering, sponsoring, and/or supporting the race. Complete the registration form on page 10 if you want to participate in the race. Complete the sponsor form on page 9 if you are willing and able to support the race financially. Both forms are also available on our website under About Us – Newsletter.

All proceeds benefit SJC's educational programs. To volunteer or ask questions, contact Joel Simon at 302-245-1386 or joel.simon2420@gmail.com. We need your help with the following:

Sponsors. Your business has a unique opportunity to support our race. As a sponsor your business will be represented in race materials and displayed prominently on our race shirts. Please complete the sponsor form and mail it to SJC.

Volunteers. Volunteers will be crucial the morning of the race. We will need help with set up, parking, registration, food prep and service, the water stop, and directing traffic.

Chefs and Bakers. Anyone who is able to make a dish for the postrace party would be a big help. This has always been a highlight of our race. Runners always compliment SJC for the food at the after party. We feature kugel at this event and would love one donated from you, but any dairy or parve food is fine.

We hope that many of you will join in the excitement as a participant, sponsor, volunteer, or all three!

Mitzvah Day at

Del. Food Bank, Apr. 10

On Wednesday afternoon, April 10, the Community Service Committee is holding a Mitzvah Day volunteer event at the Delaware Food Bank at 1040 Matlind Way, Milford. We will assist by sorting and/or packing food at the facility. We will meet at Seaside at noon to carpool to Milford for our three-hour shift, from 1 to 4 p.m.

The food bank serves people in need throughout the state by collecting, purchasing, and storing food from farmers, manufacturers, retailers, and others in the food industry to redistribute to non-profit agencies that provide free food to the hungry. More than 8 million pounds of food are distributed a year! Let's support this important organization by gathering to perform a mitzvah.

All volunteers must pre-register. If you have any questions or wish to sign up, please contact Emily Eider at emilye2287@gmail.com by Mar. 15. Once you are signed up you will receive instructions on how to register online.

Community Passover Seder Apr. 19

Passover begins at sundown on Friday, April 19 and continues until sundown Friday April 26, (or Saturday, April 27 for those who observe 8 days). As has been SJC's tradition from our start in 1997, we will have a community Seder, this year scheduled for the first night of Passover, on Friday, April 19. Reservations (via a ticket purchase) are required and cannot be made any later than April 9. See the flyer on page 11 with the information as to location and cost and how to purchase a ticket. The form is also on our website under "Worship."
